

NOTTING HILL & HOLLAND PARK

MARCH 2018 • £5

MAGAZINE

SOLE SISTER

Olivia Palermo for Pretty Ballerinas

CHAIN reaction

The lab-grown luxuries changing the face of fashion

LEFT: KAMALAYA KOH SAMUI; BELOW: HERB HOUSE SPA AT LIME WOOD. IMAGE CREDIT: AMY MURRELL

Taking the THAI ROAD

A TASTE OF Koh Samui's Kamalaya wellness sanctuary and holistic spa – plus its founders and culinary director – will be transported to Lime Wood hotel in the New Forest for a pair of three-day retreats in May. Mindfulness and stress management talks will be accompanied by yoga sessions, forest walks, cooking classes and, of course, spa treatments. 20-22 May and 23-25 May, from £1,835 per person, two nights all inclusive, limeewoodhotel.co.uk

CLOUD WINE

The Costa Brava has been given the Rubelli touch. Fabrics from the Venetian textiles specialist are peppered throughout the Alàbriga Hotel and Home Suites: an establishment with an emphasis on enotourism (plus collaborations with Chopard and Dom Pérignon). From €316 per night, bed and breakfast, hotelalabriga.com

RAISING THE ROOF

The best room in the house at the new Almanac Barcelona is its roof terrace, Azimuth. Sip aged sherry while soaking up the cityscape below.

From €425 per night, bed and breakfast, almanachotels.com

VILLAGE LIFE

Swap chocolate egg hunts and rained-off barbecues for Sardinian sunshine and watersports at Forte Village resort. A three-night Easter package includes access to the spa's six saltwater pools, a gala dinner of local culinary delights and sports tournaments to keep the kids occupied.

Easter package from €825 per person, half board, fortevillageresort.com

