We can't wait for this brand new hotel group to open up its first, flagship, high-end property in Barcelona this summer, expected to redefine luxury as we know it.

ALMANAC BARCELONA

A new kind of hospitality experience is opening just moments from the renowned Paseo de Garcia. The Almanac Barcelona is the first in a new collection of luxe properties in landmark locations including Zagreb, Vienna, Prague and Budapest. They promise an ultimately sensorial experience to enhance guest enjoyment through the elements of travel that make up the entire journey – light, touch, sight, scent and taste. Expect contemporary interior design, seductive textures, an exclusive, panoramic rooftop bar, hand made amenities and fragrances (featuring Galbanum, a healing botanical used in incense, first mentioned in the Book of Exodus) and molecular cocktails matched with fresh food from the Med.
