ARTHY IN A DAY
BY ALEX VOINEA

ALMANAC

BARCELONA

An artistic guide through the eyes of Suite 704's resident artist — a stroll along Carrer del Consell de Cent, once the heart of Barcelona's gallery scene.

JORDI BARNADAS GALLERY

Specializing in contemporary painting and sculpture, featuring over 40 national artists.

A must-stop on this route.

GALERIA MAYORAL

Founded in 1989, a Barcelona landmark showcasing Miró, Dalí, Picasso and Chillida.

My favorite gallery — I return whenever I can.

JOAN GASPAR GALLERY

Run by descendants of Picasso's early patrons, dating back to 1909.

The first space where Picasso ever exhibited.

J. BAGOT GALLERY – CLASSICAL ART

Dedicated to ancient art from Egypt, Rome, and Greece.

For those who want to explore the roots of art.

GALERIA TRES PUNTS – CONTEMPORARY ART

Opened in 1994, featuring artists like Gerard Mas, Samuel Salcedo, and Yves Decamps.

An intimate and fascinating space.

RUBÉN TORRES GALLERY – NEW SPACE

Showcasing contemporary artists and connecting past and present.

A gallery I'm discovering — and loving.

BICI GALLERY

Exhibition space centered on bicycles — a nod to the artist's way to disconnect and create.

My personal escape.

COMPARTIR RESTAURANT

Mediterranean cuisine designed for sharing.

My gastronomic refuge in Barcelona.
